

A.S. Applied Business (ABA)
(Approved by the Faculty on February 19, 2003)

---

Associate of Science in Applied Business – Student Learning Outcomes

Upon graduation, students receiving the Associate of Science in Applied Business will be able to:

1. Demonstrate the ability to communicate clearly and concisely in written and oral, graphical, and visual communication.
2. Apply the skills and knowledge necessary for mathematical, scientific, and computer science in solving business problems.
3. Demonstrate an awareness and understanding of the business environment and human interaction.
4. Develop and demonstrate abilities in accounting, finance, management, and introductory business.
5. Recognize the role of citizens in the global society and understand diverse cultural and humanistic traditions.